Farmington Observer

Your hometown newspaper serving Farmington and Farmington Hills for 115 years

Thursday, September 20, 2001

hometownnewspapers.net

Seasons change: Fall fashions from several local shops will be fea-tured in the 32nd annual fashion show to benefit the historic Longacre House on Thursday, Oct. 4. Among the models will be 2-year-old Miranda Chahine. For a preview peek, please turn to HomeTown Life, Page C6.

Firefighters will be taking donations

CONCATIONS

Farmington Hills Fire Department volunteous will be on handat Busch's market today from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., collecting donations that will be sent to an organization that provides support for the families of firefighters killed in the Soptember 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in New York.

Busch's is located on Drake Road, just north of Grand River.
Firefighters are also planning an American Family Fun Day at Compaware in Farmington Hills on Soptember 23. They're looking for volunteers to help provide entertainment and run activities.

Details are in the story on page A2.

INDEX

Apartments/G3 At Home/C1 Automotive/G11 Classified/E.F.G.H Classified Index/G1 Crossword/G2 Entertainment/B1

Obituaries/A12 Opinions/A10-11 Real Estate/E1
Service Guide/G11
Sports/D1

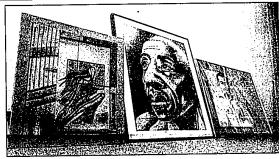

Heritage Art

For art's sake: Carol Leiblein of the cultural arts division and Robb Clarkson. Costick Center manager, look manager, took over some of the art that will be hung this week for the Heritage Festival. In a variety of media, the works reprethe works represent a range of cultural heritages.

Staff Photos by Bull Brisler

The (art) show must go on

■ While some Heritage Week events have changed, a juried art show will open Thursday evening, as planned

A juried art show, held in conjunction with the Farmington Multired Community Council's Heritage Week, will go on as planned. According to cultural arts coordinator Nancy Coumoundouros, an opening reception held 6 p.m. Thursday at the William B. Costick Center in Farmington Hills will be open to the public. Visitors will have a chance to meet with 60 artists from the U.S., Armenia, Foland, Albania, Africa, Iraq, Japan, India and Greece.

While the art show will go on, Heritage Week activities have changed somewhat in light of the tragic terrorist attacks in New York and Washington, D.C. on Sept. 11.

Community remembers

Community remembers
Thursday night's planned "kick-off rally", which normally includes a guest speaker and an averview of the Multicultural/Multiracial Community Council's activities, has been designated as a time for community residents to express their thoughts about the tragedy.

Guest speakers at "Uniting for America: A Community Remembers" will be Carolyn Clifford, WXYZ news, Judge Marla Parker, 47th District Court; and attorney Elias Escobedo, Jr., President of the Oak-land County Bar Association. Clif-ford will moderate audience com-ments, which will be taped.

The Harrison High marching band and East Middle School choir will perform.

The main program begins at 7 p.m. A multicultural art exhibit will open that evening as well.

Community Contributes

Sunday's Heritage Festival, origi-nally slated from 12:30 p.m. to 6 p.m., will be shortened in duration from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. At 3 p.m., the commemoration at Central Park in New York City will be broadcast on big screen television.

Please see ART SHOW, A2

City appoints mansion director

STAPY WHITES

BULL WOCK-homecomm.net

Linda Horvath, the Gov. Warner

Mansion's first museum director, was appointed unanimously Monday by the Farmington Gity Council.

The city received the mansion as a gift. 20 years ago. The 134-year old mansion, the former home of Gov.
Fred Warner, is on Grand River, west of Farmington Road.

"As part of that gift, it became the responsibility of the City of Farmington Gity Council to assure that this building, its contents and grounds were maintained and available for the public in an appropriate manner," said
Farmington Gity Manager Frank Lauhoff. "For many years, the oversight of the Gov. Warner Mansion has been accomplished through the dedication of many volunteers."

The council considered appointing a director for two years, Lauhoff said.

Horvath, a mansion docent and a Farmington Hills resident, will be

Please see MANSION, A4

Please see MANSION, A4

Conference message of respect digs deep

kbrows@oc.bomecomm.net Respect and moderation can lift our behavior above prejudice, and the notion that "I believe and you don't, so I'm good and you're bad.
That assessment by long-time AntiDefamation League Director Dick Lobenthal seemed to dig deep, in a week where well-intentioned political and religious leaders searched for fitting words of comfort, understanding and retribution, following the Sept. 11 terrorist acts.

and retribution, following the Sept. 11 terrorist acts. In his keynote address Sept. 16 to the first ever Mini-Conference on Religious and Cultural Diversity at the Costick Activities Center in Farmington Hills, Lobenthal said we have to be supportive and carring of diverse values, "Even if we don't support the practice here and now." Opening the conference, Pastor Ben Bohnsack told the crowd of more than 100 attendees, "It's a good thing we planned this day, given the events of

Please see CONFERENCE, A4

spree.
It's all part of Fabulous Furniture 2001 to be featured in our At Home
section on Thursday, Oct. 4, 11 and 18.

section on Thursday, Oct. 4, 11 and 18.

Just think. You could be one of 12 lucky winners who will receive a $1,000 gift certificate to shop at Newton Furniture (Bloomfield Hills, Livenia, Novi and Sterling Heights locations), Ethan Allien (Ann Arbor, Auburn Hills, Birmingham, Livenia and Novi locations), Classic Interioral Civonia), Franks Furniture (Wayno), Laurel Furniture (downtown Flymouth), Walker's Busenberg (downtown Plymouth), In-Style Furniture (Wast Bloomfield), Shewood Studios (West Bloomfield), Dalley Carpet (locations in Livonia and Canton), Edipse Window Tint (Redford Township), McLaughlin's (locations in Novi and Southgate) and Baker Furniture (downtown Birmingham).

Fun starts Oct. 4

Fun starts Oct. 4

Winning is easy. Each participating morehant will have officied Fabulous Furniture entry forms available beginning Oct. 4. You may enter one time at each store. So you'll want to visit each store (several merchants have multiple locations) and increase your chances of winning.

You must be at least 18 years old to enter. All entries have an equal chance of being drawn. Deading to onter is 5 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 25.

Look for the entry form in your Thursday and Sunday Observed. Don't miss the oct. 4 At Home section which takes a look at dining rooms and kitchens. Look for they on how to make your dining room a center for family gatherings. Read about what's new in kitchen floring, cabinets and countertops. Read about how to urnavel the mystery of furniture styles.

On Thursday, Oct. 11, At Home will styles.

On Thursday, Oct. 11, At Home will feature living rooms and great rooms.

Newsroom: 248-477-5450

Find out how to make your living room reflect comfort not formality. Read about the latest choices in enter-tainment centers and how to use art

a furniture shopping spree

Read about the latest choices in entertainment centers and how to use art as furniture.
To complete our series, the Observer
will present bedrooms and bathrooms.
Discover how to turn your bedroom into a retreat and what mattress to buy for a good night's sleep. Stories on new furniture styles, windows, oriental rugs, clocks, lighting and appliances are all part of the package.
A special Pecigner's Corner' will offer decorating tips each week.
When you visit participating merchants be sure to look for the Fabulous Furniture in-store displays and outry forms. Context details can also be found in your Observer every Thursday and Sunday. Or visit a nearby Observer office to pick up an entry form or copy of the newspaper for contest details.
Don't miss this chance to spruce up your home and read about the latest in furniture styles and decorating tips in Fabulous Furniture 2001.

