Silence and Peace

Amidst all of the chaos and nerve-jarring noise of the modern world, what a pleasure it is to find a moment of silence. However, silence is often hard to come by these days, and we should try to be more aware of how our actions and utterances affect others. How annoying it is to be enjoying a nice quiet walk in the park and to have it ruined by someone gunning their engine, screeching their tires or playing their radio at near-deafening levels. There is a monastery a few miles from our home where everyone is welcome to visit. The only requirement is that you try to preserve silence while on the grounds. There are no radios, televisions or even telephones, and the peace and silence is quite conducive to prayer, meditation or just thoughtful reflection on one's life. Everyone needs a little peace and quiet at times, and perhaps it would do us well to go a day or two without turning on a radio or a television set. Silence promotes peace. As Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give you."

Be silent before the Lord God! for the day of the Lord is at hand;
R.S.V. Zephaniah 1:7
