Pet-A-Pet needs helpers

Do you own a pet dog, cat or rabbit? Can you spare an hour a month to brighten someone's day? Then you might want to consider becoming a Pet-A-Pet volunteer.

Volunteers visit hospitals and other institutions with their pets. Pets should be friendly and have current vaccination records. Visits last approximately one hour.

If you'd like to join or want more information, call Ruth Curry at (313) 636-0410. Two local centers involved in the Pet-A-Pet program include Botsford Continuing Health Center where volunteers visit on the second Saturday of the month at 10 a.m. (call coordinator Estelle Biesiadek at (734) 464-9005) and the Farmington Health Care Center where volunteers and their pets visit on the first Wednesday of the month at 10:30 a.m. (call coordinator Lori Clinton at (313) 533-0222).

Sisterhood dinner Dec. 6

The Sisterhoods of Adat Shalom Synagogue and Shaarey Zedek will "capture the essence of truth" at their 14th annual joint sisterhood dinner on Thursday, Dec. 6. This year's dinner will be held at Adat Shalom, beginning with shopping boutiques at 6 p.m.

The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be followed by a special presentation by Sandra Finkelstein and Suzanne Briggs, owners of the Truth Salon in West Bloomfield. They will talk about "How to Reveal Your Inner and Outer Beauty."

There is a $20 charge for the evening with advance payment and a $24 charge at the door. Reservations are due by Nov. 29. Guests are welcome.

Mail your checks (payable to Sisterhood of Adat Shalom) to Sisterhood, Adat Shalom Synagogue, 29901 Middlebelt, Farmington Hills, 48334.

Cheryl Margolis and Linda Levy are co-chairing the program. For more information, call 651-5100.

Dinner aids Angels' Place

George Will, syndicated newspaper columnist, author and father of a developmentally disabled son, will be guest speaker at Angels' Place ninth annual dinner on Thursday, Dec. 6, at the Dearborn Hyatt Regency.

Angels' Place is a nonprofit organization established in 1992 to provide Christian homes and supportive services to adults with developmental disabilities. There is an Angels' Place residence for women in Farmington Hills.

Cardinal Adam Maida is this year's honoree. Michael Grimaldi, vice president of General Motors, is expected to present a share of his million dollar prize won at the McCarty Golf Tournament held earlier this fall.

The event is the major fundraiser for Angels' Place. Cocktail reception is at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Sponsor tickets are $175 per person. Patron tickets are $275 and include a reception with Will. Chairing the event this year are Dennis and Carolyn Flynn and Bob and Sarah Koval.

For more information or tickets, call Barbara Urbiel, director of development, at (248) 350-2203.
