Holiday table event benefits Goodfellows

The Farmington Garden Club will host its second annual Holi-day Table event on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, at the Spicer House in Heritage the Spicer House in Heritage Park. At least 15 tables festively dec-orated with themes reflective of winter holidays including Christ-mis, New Year's, Hanukah and Kwanzaa, will be on display. "Last year was our first year and it was so successful we are adding a gala proview event the night before," said Jan Dolan, chairwoman.

Benefit for Goodfellows

Proceeds from the Friday night gala will benefit the Farmington Godfellows. Admission will be $25 per ticket, which admits two guests. The event is scheduled from 6:30-8:30 p.m. and tickets will be available at the door.

The concern is for Farmington the door.

"The concern is for Farmington Goodfellows now with a lot of money going to the relief effort in New York, Dolan said.

"We have a lot of different tables, I'd say at least 15. I did Kwanzan (theme) last year. This year I'm going to possibly do (tablo) on the Muslim holiday. Let's see more Eastern themes."

A boutique also will be run both days. It will feature special tree ornaments, wreaths and flags for sale.

On Saturduy, Dec. 1, admission to the show is $5. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
"It's a chance for visitors to get ideas for table decorations," Dolan said. "A lot of people never get over to the visitor's center. And this will help get them ready for the holidays."

The Farmington Garden Club is a member of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan.

Botsford honors veterans

Botsford Health Care Continu-

Botsford Health Care Continuum is doing its part in honoring vieterans by placing their names on a specialized plaque entitled "Honoring Our Heroes."

It will be located in the maleby of Botsford Commons.
Community members and Betsford Commons residents can have their name – or the name of a loved one who is a veteran – placed on the plaque simply by making a donation to the Botsford Coundation.

"We felt it was especially important to show our support to veterans in light of recent world events," said Ann Neuenschwander, manager of donor relations for the Botsford Foundation.

For more information on this program call (248) 442-5045.
