nlly. Its first possession ended with a short punt, the second and fourth with lost fumbles. Harrison secord anch time, the drives covering 44, 65 and 24 yards. The Trojans held the Hawks to, what was for them, a modest, 21-0 halftime lead, but a second-half rally by the Trojans second unlikely. "What hurt us was turning the ball over," Fruitport coach Stave Wilson said, "and that was the one thing we couldn't do and win the ballgame. "We didn't give them a lot of big plays. I think they had to work for every one of them. We just couldn't stop them from get-ting in the end zone." Stanton, who completed 14 of 18 passes for 210 yards, passed for two touchdowns and ran for another.

The plass is belowns and ran for another. Marcias Woods, who rushed for 68 yard run 16 carnies, made a 4-yard run for the team's fourth TD in the second half. The Trojans were three-and-out on their first possession, and the Hawks secord seven plays later when Stanton passed 10 yards to Agim Shabd. Shabaj, who had team-high totals with five receptions for 96 yards, eaught the ball in the flat and split two defenders, bowling over one to get across the goal line. lin
