ENJOY THE JOURNEY
We recently made a car trip that was about ten hours long. The first eight hours were traveled on highways and throughways, with all of the traffic and large trucks one could imagine. The last two hours were spent on country roads where we could drive at a much more relaxed speed. Needless to say, the last part of our trip was much more enjoyable and scenic. In our modern world, everything moves at such a fast pace that we don't often get a chance to enjoy the journey. Anticipation, desire and patience seem to be lacking in our busy world; they have been replaced by instant gratification. We can go across the country in a matter of hours, prepare a meal in a matter of minutes, and even purchase any expensive item we desire without waiting until we have the money. The old phrase "stop and smell the roses" should apply to every part of our lives. If we are not enjoying the journey, we are missing out on something special. If we leave God out of our journey of life, we are also missing out on something special. Perhaps when we do arrive at our final destination, we may regret that we didn't take the time to really appreciate and observe God's love.
Make me to know
the ways, O Lord;
teach me thy paths.
R.S.V.
Psalm 25:4
