Farmington rallies to top Churchill

The Farmington Unified hockey team used two second period goals to defeat Livonia Churchill, 2-1, Wednesday at the Farmington Hill Ice Arena. It was Farmington's first win over Churchill in four years and the team's first home win of the season.

Trailing 1-0 after the first period, Farmington got on the scoreboard when Brad Heraghty scored at the 7:54 mark of the second period. Marc Roth assisted on the goal. Four minutes later, Keith Hay, assisted by Heraghty and Jeff Tosolan, scored the winning goal.

Churchill, trying to even the score, outshot Farmington 9-8 in the final period, but couldn't get anything past goalie Aaron Aller. Overall, Farmington outshot Churchill 30-18.

The Chargers (3-2-1, and 3-1-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association) scored first when Jim Krygowski bent Aller at 4:14 of the first period.

With the win the Flyers improved to 4-2-1 overall, and 2-2 in the WLA.

"It was a great game. Up and down. We just had one more goal than they did. It was a big win for our kids," said Farmington coach Mike Harris.
