The Clarkston Village Players opens its production of Other People's Money, by Jerry Sterner on Friday.

Corporate raiding has never been funnier than in this tale of Wall Street and a young hot shot, who, in his attempt to manipulate the take over of The Mow England Wire and Cable Company, meets his match in a dynamic female attorney. This is an adult comedy with strong language. Parental discretion is advised.

Habitat for Humanity will warm you up at Plymouth Ice Festival

As the city of Plymouth celebrates the 20th anniversary of its world-renowned Ice Spectacular, Habitat for Humanity of Western Wayne County will be there to warm you up-inside and oatly, Jan. 16, the first evening of the ice festival, the Penn Theatre, located in the heart of downtown Plymouth, will feature a one-time-only showing of the Wizard of Oz in its special re-released version. Habitat volunteers will be right there, serving up hot and cold refreshments denoted by area businesses. In addition, on Saturday,

Jan. 19, Habitat volunteers will offer goodies from the comfort of the warming room, compliments of General Medicine, on the corner of Main and Penniman (the old NBD building). All proceeds from these events go directly into building the Habitat house in Romulus so a family can move in this winter.

Don't miss this opportunity for warm food, warm drink and warm food, warm drink and warm food, warm nual Ice Spectacular. And this year, it's just one more way to let Habitat for Humanity bring families in from the cold.
