

Sisters celebrate anniversary of religious orders in Farmington Hills

Thirteen Sisters of Mercy from the Regional Community of Detroit celebrated the 25th, 50th, 60th, or 75th anniversary of their religious vows in 2001.

"These women have dedicated their lives to God, each serving in her own special way through prayer, education, health care, social services, parish work or other ministry," said Sister Linda Werthman, president of the Detroit regional community. "We thank them for their faithful witness to God, for their presence among us, for their devotion to service and for touching the lives of so many along their journey."

Hundreds of guests joined in honoring the sisters at a Jubilee Celebration at Mercy Center in Farmington Hills. Celebrating anniversaries are the following:

75 Years

M. Eymard Angers, RSM — Ministered to elementary students throughout Michigan for 17 years and served the sick as a nurse for 28 years before entering into a ministry of prayer 20 years ago.

M. Dennis Mooney, RSM — Taught grades 1-8 for 45 years throughout Michigan and in Clovis, N.M. She served in elected leadership for her Mercy community for four years and in pastoral ministry for 12 years before beginning her current ministry of prayer in 1990.

60 Years

M. Honora Buza, RSM — Taught grades 1-7 for 33 years throughout Michigan and in Tucson, Ariz. She served in pastoral positions and currently volunteers at Mercy Bellbrook in Rochester Hills.

M. Bernadette Grimm, RSM — Ministered for 22 years teaching grades 2-8 and was principal of St. Anselm School in Dearborn for seven years. She served in pastoral work for 21 years at the same Detroit health care institution under three different names — St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Samaritan Health Center and Mercy Hospital — and later volunteered with the Regional Community's Development Office.

Elaine Mary Hart, RSM — Brought her competence and passion to elementary and secondary education for more than 30 years. Following the Second Vatican Council, she redirected her skills to religious education for 10 years as one of the pioneers in the field and has generously shared her talents in the visual arts.

Alice Marie Morrow, RSM — Taught K-8 grades for 27 years and language arts for two summers at Mercy College of Detroit.

She supervised teachers in lab schools of Mercy College of Detroit for 10 years, served as principal of Immaculate Conception School in Traverse City and Holy Name School in Wyoming, Mich. for eight years, and served in support service within Mercy Hospital, Grayling for eight years.

M. Bertha Vondruska, RSM — Taught grades 1-3 for 27 years in parochial schools throughout Michigan. She served as principal of Holy Name School in Wyoming, Mich. for 11 years and of St. Joseph School in Belding for six years. She has lived and ministered at St. Michael's School and Parish in Remus, Mich. for the past 13 years.

Bernadette Mary Frank, RSM — Served in various roles in the healing ministry for over 42 years at hospitals in Iowa and Michigan and on behalf of migrant workers and persons without health insurance. She currently volunteers at the Then Bowman Nurse Managed Center in Highland Park and Mercy Place Clinic in Pontiac, assists in the office of St. Clare's Parish in Farmington Hills and helps her sisters at McAuley Retirement Center.

M. Canice Johnson, RSM — Has ministered as a teacher in a variety of settings. For eighteen years she taught in grades seven through college, engaged in training and process consultancy and was the founding director of Mercy Education Project. Sister Canice currently works with youth in Detroit in the area of language skills as well as training teachers in the Orin-Gillingham, multi-sensory approach to learning.

M. Alicia MacAdden, RSM — Has used her artistic gifts in secondary education and in pastoral work for 36 years serving people suffering from economic poverty in Argentina.

M. Jonella Pieper, RSM — Carried out the healing ministry for 34 years in nursing and pastoral care throughout Iowa and Michigan. She currently offers spiritual and emotional support to persons and families by prayers, counseling and visiting.

M. Augusta Stratz, RSM — Began in ministry in elementary education for 14 years. Since 1971 she has focused on pastoral and social ministries, especially with the elderly and those experiencing emotional distress.

25 Years

LuAnn Mary Hannasch, RSM — Has been in the healing ministry as a staff nurse, rural community health nurse and nurse administrator for most of the 25 years since she entered the Mercy community. She is currently in a ministry of presence in Mio and ministers at Mercy Hospital, Grayling on behalf of parish nursing and mission services.
