Love One Another

In the Bible, chapter 13 of St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians is sometimes called the "Love Chapter." It says in part that, "Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong." St. Paul also tells us that if we do not have love, we are worth nothing at all. We often hear this reading at weddings because it is good advice for the bride and groom as well as for the attending guests. It seems that we can never read or hear these words without thinking about some aspect of our lives that we can improve. Perfect love is something that everyone should strive for, and the Bible tells us that we should love God and our neighbor. "God is Love," and when we are striving for perfect love, we are nurturing a relationship with our Heavenly Father.

Dear Friends,
let us love one another,
because love comes from God.
