Storing Our Riches
Sometimes I get the feeling that we spend too much of our time and energy on things that seem to have so little relative worth in this world. Although our jobs, homes, cars, etc. are all necessary and important to maintaining our daily lives, it seems that too much emphasis is placed on so many short-term things. Today, it seems that most everyone is trying to acquire as much wealth as they can so they can buy more things that will make them happier. We are a competitive people, and it seems that we are always trying to obtain something bigger or better than the next person. Perhaps we should simply try to enjoy all the blessings that our Father in Heaven has given to us, and realize that true lasting peace can only be found in doing God's will. The Bible tells us that our hearts will always be where our riches are, and that we should store our riches in Heaven. We are doing so every time we do what we believe God wants us to do. We should be good stewards of the many gifts that God gives us, and we should realize that His love is the greatest gift of all.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
