

Star Trek theme of Special Days Camp charity bowling event

Breaking news flash...
 Outpost Cloverlanes in a faraway region once known as Livonia has become an action-filled battlefield Sunday as the two superpowers of the universe clashed in mortal combat using only primitive spheroids as weapons.

Some of these lethal balls of urethane weigh as much as 300 klegs (about 16 pounds).

As the outerspatial warfare took on the aura of mortal combat, the Klingons of Praxis attacked the Federation forces by hurling their spheroids at the 10 standard bowling pins clustered in defensive formation.

The Federation responded in kind with domination on the lanes and emerged triumphant for the second year in a row.

The real winners were actually the Special Days Camp, which provides a summer camp setting for children with cancer and their siblings.

The fourth annual inter-galactic battle of bowling raised over $2,000 to help pay for the costs.

The event was a big blast for participants and spectators alike, as they could hear the blood-curdling screams after one of the warriors left the dreaded 7-10 Kipper.

The battle cry of the Klingons could be heard across Jeffries Freeway as the earthlings were busy purchasing supplies at the Meijers trading post.

The trophies for high game went to Admiral Rick Smith, the Federation Commander for his superior 189 game and to 'Jorah' (Karen Drum) for the most pledges at $334.

These two great forces shall meet again next year for a rematch.

Any interested Star Trek fans or fun-loving bowlers who would like to join in or make a contribution can contact Admiral Khas, the Klingon commander at planet earth phone designation, at (734) 422-8166 or Smith at (586) 660-5972.

The Cass Sicilia Memorial Ladies Classic concluded its league season at Westland's Vision Lanes with the championship honors going to team No. 17, Top Shelf, consisting of captain Colleen Asel, Nancy Caldwell, Donna DeAngelis, Karelie Hoskins and Jeri Lantz.

This league has turned out to be one of the more successful ladies classics in the area, the others being the All-Star Bowlerettes on Monday evenings at Plaza Lanes in Plymouth and the Cherry Hill Match Play Trio, which runs Thursday night at Cherry Hill Lanes. They still have another week to go to produce a championship team. This area takes pride in having some of the strongest ladies leagues in the nation, with these leading the way.

Wonderland Lanes in Livonia recently concluded its youth scholarship tournament with the following award recipients:

Kelly Schmansky, Westland (Class of 2005), $300 scholarship award; Courtney Niland, Livonia (Class of 2005), $175; Brandie Reamie, Livonia, (Class of 2012), $125; Chris Blair, Livonia (Class of 2006), $100; and Tiffany Clowney, Detroit (Class of 2010), $50.

Many leagues are finishing their season now, and before we decide to put the bowling equipment in mothballs for the summer, consider the spring/summer league bowling.

Bear in mind that most of the local bowling centers are air conditioned, it is a great way to escape the heat on those long hot summer days.

It also a chance to work on your game, the bowling rates are seasonally lower, there are more lanes available for open bowling, and don't forget about taking a lesson or two from one of the professionals in this area. Check with your local bowling center and see what they have to offer for summer fun and even if you are a golfer, plan a bowling day when it rains.
