Vikings best Rocks to win girls crown

cirisat@oc.homecomm.net
No one figured it would be easy. Running the conference track meet three days after the state regional meet is asking a lot. Peak performances are going to be short in supply.

GIRLS TRACK

Which is what made the Western Lakes Activities Association girls track finals Tuesday at Farmington High School more of a survival test than a clash between top teams in exceptional competitive shape.

And when it all worked its way out, the team that had been the best during the dual-news teamson – Walled Lake Central – was the fittest of the survivors, finishing first with 121 points. Plymouth Salem was an distant second with 104, followed by Livonia Churchill in third with 83.5.

We knew it would be tough," said Churchill coach Kelly Graham. "We tried to do what we could. We put a lot of pressure on our distance runners, and they did all that they could.

Walled Lake Central has too much depth. They scored 21 points in the pole vault alone."

Just three days earlier at the Dearborn regional meet, the Chargers had been exceptional, finishing first with 112.25 points. They had state qualifiers in the 800-meter run, the 1,600 and the 3,200, as well as two relay teams. However; matching a performance like that in so short a span of time proved too much to ask. Churchill had beaten Salem by nearly 20 points at the regional; at the

WLAA finals, it was the Rocks who finished on top by more than 20 points.

"We did a great job today," said Salem coach Mark Gregor. "We had us seeded to score 101 points and we scored

gor. "We had us seemed to all the field events, and "We didn't score enough points in the field events, and "We didn't score env in the pole yoult."

we didn't score any in the pole vault."
That was the difference in the final standings. If the Rocks match or offset the Vikings' 21 points in the pole vault, they finish first.

when, any unish first.

"We have a good team," said Gregor, "We're just lacking that one big shooter. There are no boundide stars on this team. That's why our relays all qualified for state (three of four did)."

There were there.

(three of four did)."
There were three double-winners in individual events in the meet. North Farmington's Susan Barrows won both the 1,600 and 3,200 runs; Northville's Devon Rupley was first in the 400 and the 800; and Churchill's Midderson captured both the shot put and the discus. Salem did not have a winner in an individual event, although the Rocks did win two relays: the 400 and the 800. They were also third in the 1,600 and fourth in the 3,200.

3,200.

Like Churchill, Central had two first-place finishes:
from Sarah Chrzanowski in the pole vault) and from Bridget Sheridan in the high jump. Stevenson had winners in three events, Colleen Bosman in the 100 hurdles, Kaitlin Armstrong in the 300 hurdles and its 1,600 relay

In the sprints, Canton's Christina Redd was the winner in the 100 (12.92) and Harrison's Krystal Wise took top honors in the 200 (26.77).

Other firsts went to Northville's Maggie Ossola in the long jump and the Mustangs in the 3,200 relay.
