and Micah Demeyer hit back-to-back doubles, and Greg Hocking capped the inning with an RBI single that scored Demeyer. Hocking was the only player with two hits.

Volpe also threw a three-bitter in the nightcap, which went seven innings. He struck out five and didn't walk anybody. The Clarkston run was unearned.

His teammates supported

Volpe with 18 hits. Luftman went 4-for-5 with a home run, three singles and four RBI.

Picard and Houehins had three hits apiece, including a double for each. Ghannam and Volpe had two hits each - one of Ghannam's being a home run. Ghannam had two RBI and Volpe one.

Farmington's winning streak ended Monday when visiting Royal Oak pinned an 11-1 loss on the local legionnaires.

Joe James started and went 2½, surrendering seven unearned runs on eight hits and four errors. Chesney was 2-for-3; James singled and scored the Farmington on a double by Picard.

Post 346 picked up an easy victory Tuesday when Auburn Hills forfeited a scheduled game. Farmington plays host to Rochester at noon Sunday in a doubleheader.

will now be able to concentrate on just playing hockey."

Wisniewski admits he felt pressure to perform last season, but now that he has an idea of what his future could hold, he is focused and ready for the new season.

"Before, I was worrying about what 30 teams thought of me," he said. "Now I know who my team is and I can just play. It's certainly a huge relief."

Wisniewski said he should resume skating by August and hopes to be at 100 percent entering Plymouth's training camp in September.

Campbell had a solid offensive season for the Whalers, scoring 17 goals with 36 assists in 65 games and was a plus-31 for the season. Vellucci said the Panthers will offer Campbell chance to grow as a player and an opportunity to play in the NHL down the road. "Greg was rated as a second round pick and ended up going in the third, but that's the way the draft works sometimes," Vellucci said. "He had a big jump in his numbers this year and he'll have a chance to make an even bigger jump next year."

Vellucci said Fiedler going to the Sharks was a pleasant surprise. "He's a big kid who improved a lot this year," Vellucci said. "He has a nice scoring touch but didn't get a whole lot of ice time this year, so you can see the Sharks probably drafted him on potential. But for him to get drafted, it will be a great experience for him."

Fiedler had eight goals and 12 assists for the Whalers last season.
