Sheehan Opera Co. Presenting

"The Chimes of Normandy"

For the week beginning this week Monday the Sheehan Opera company have selected what is without question the most popular of all light operas, namely, "The Chimes of Normandy." To say that the Sheehan English Opera Company selected this opera is not entirely the case, as for the past two seasons numerous requests have come in to the management to have this old-time favorite presented by this organization, but Mr. Sheehan has never before felt that he could cast the opera as he would like to until now.

In the production to be given next week, Mr. Sheehan himself will be heard as Henri, Marquis of Corneville, a part usually sung by a high baritone, but which, with his tremendous range, lies easily within Mr. Sheehan's ability. It is a much stronger role than Grenicheux and one which will show Mr. Sheehan to much better advantage. The role of Grenicheux will be taken by Mr. Thomas S. Perry. As Gaspard, the miser, Mr. Boyle will have the greatest role in which he has been heard since his opening performance of Mephisto; in fact, it is said that the promise that "The Chimes of Normandy" was to be presented later in the season and that he was to have this great role was a prime factor in inducing Mr. Boyle to remain for the opening week as he was only engaged for the one week originally. Germaine will be sung by Miss Gladys Caldwell and Serpolette by Miss Anna Stetler. Mr. McElhern will be seen in a character typically suited to his style of comedy, namely, the Bailiff, with Mr. Jorgensen as the Notary.

Taxes Due

The tax roll for the village of Farmington is now in my hands for collection. All taxes must be paid by August 15.
