"ALL THE FINANCING OPTIONS"

Every kind of mortgage loan is available to today's home buyer. The variety almost certainly assures that there is type of loan that is ideal for your situation. Here are some of the more popular types that you may want to consider.

FHA - This loan allows for a minimal down payment and is often used by first time home buyers with very little cash to use for a down payment.

VA - Available to veterans of the armed services, this loan calls for no down payment. It has been recently opened up to those in the military who were in the reserves and served less than six months on active duty.

30 Year Fixed Rate - Traditionally the most popular loan for many years, its interest rate never changes over the life of the loan.

15 Year Fixed Rate - Its interest rate remains fixed over its 15 year life. Because this loan is repaid in 15 years, the monthly payment is higher than the 30 year loan. There is also a substantial savings in interest paid.

Adjustable Rate - Its interest rate can be adjusted periodically depending upon prevailing rates in effect each year. Because of its low initial rate, it allows more people to afford home

Convertible Adjustable Rate - This adjustable rate loan can be converted to a fixed rate loan at the discretion of the borrower.

ADVICE: There are many opportunities available to today's home buyer. If you are interested in exploring your ability to buy a home, contact your
