Compuware earns top-10 finish in ASA tourney

Meghan Misiak proved last spring she was among the best high school girls softball pitchers in the state.

This summer, the Livonia Churchill graduate raised her game another notch as the ace of the Compuware 18-and-under squad, which carned a ninth-place finish among 128 teams last week in the ASA Championiships in Rockford, Ill.

cmampionships in Rockford, Ill.

Compuware completed its summer schedule 48-10 overall with Misiak winning 42 of those games, according to manager Al Land.

"Meghan was as good as any of the pitchers we played," sail Land, who is also Clarkston High's coach. "She was our workhorse and she did an outstanding job. She not only keeps teams off balance, but when she gets in a jam she can throw the ball by people.

Misiak pitched in all nine games as Compuware finished 6-3 in ASA tournament play. She posted a 5-2 record with five complete games.

"She can throw four or five different pitches and she has an outstanding riseball," Land said. "She's a player a lot of Division I schools would want to recruit. Wayne State (Division II) is getting an excellent recruit."

Compuware split four games with powerhouse teams from California. Compuware also went 7-3 last month in the Colorado Fireworks Tournament held in Denver, which featured many of the same teams that competed in the ASA.

Herrington also was a guest of the National Football League last weekend in Canton, Ohio. He was one of 200 prep and little league coaches from across the country who were invited to participate in the NFL for Youth Football program as part of the NFL Hall of Fame ceremonies. Harrison enters the 2002 season as a three-time defending Division III state champion with a 36-game winning streak.

The Hawks are ranked No. 9 in the Midwest (the only Michigan school in the top 15) and No. 47 nationally in the preseason by Student Sports. "It's nice to be ranked that high, but we have a lot of work to do," Herrington said, adding the Hawks have just one starter back on offense and two on defense. Harrison begins the season

Saturday, Aug. 31, when it plays Birmingham Brother Rice at 4 p.m. in the Pontiac Silverdome.
