Redford

The Tammany A. C. team failed to show up last Saturday and the absence of the usual weekly ball game was felt in Redford. This is the first disappointment for a long time and the act of the delinquents is giving no notice of their intention to not come stamps their manager as lacking in the customary courtesy that is always expected between ball teams.

The open air concert given on the streets of Redford last Saturday night by the Northville band was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd.

The organization is composed of a lot of fine, gentlemanly fellows and their efforts to please the Redfordites was appreciated, as was shown by the efforts of the business men and others to shower courtesies upon them. They delighted the crowd for several hours with their fine playing and will always find a hearty welcome when they come this way.

Saturday afternoon of this week the ball game scheduled is with the Dayton, a Detroit team that is reported to be a tough proposition on the ball field. They have been playing winning ball so far this season, but Redford hopes to break the chain for them. They are coming out with their strongest line-up for they have had a tip that they will need their best on this occasion.

The D. U. R. switch and side track which led to the milk depot have been removed and it takes a decided nuisance off the street. The sidewalk can now be continued along that side where before there was a disagreeable break.
