LOOKING FOR THE GOOD IN OTHERS

Sometimes we may take for granted the good qualities and values that others possess. Oftentimes, we are so involved in our everyday lives that we neglect to see the good in our friends and those around us. A kind word from a stranger or a good deed from a friend is important in our daily lives, and it can make our day a little brighter. When we recognize the goodness in those around us, it helps to make us better individuals and reflects our love of God. God looks for the good in all of us, and His commandment to love your neighbor is for everyone's benefit. Those who are helpful and interested in others are examples of His love for us, and kindness done to others is usually passed on. The Bible tells us that whenever we do good for the least of our brothers, we are doing it for the Lord. We should always be aware of the goodness and love that our Heavenly Father has for us. His love is eternal and His faithfulness lasts forever.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
