Hills PD golf outing raises $135K

BY PAUL R. PACE
STAFF WRITER

Another beautiful day and another successful fund-raiser occurred for the Farmington Hills Police Department Benevolent Association's Eighth Annual Golf Classic at the Links of Novi Golf Course Friday.

The event included golf, dinner, live and silent auctions, golf awards, and the raffle of more than 125 prizes.

The affair raised about $135,000, said Farmington Hills Police Chief William Dwyer.

The evening's highlight was a live auction hosted by singer/actress Karen Newman, restaurateur John Ginopolis, Channel 7 news anchor Guy Gordon and Farmington Hills Police Chief William Dwyer.

The Benevolent Association represents Farmington Hills Police and Firefighters, the Farmington Department of Public Safety and Franklin Police.

The association disburses the proceeds to family members of deceased police officers, firefighters and other members of the community in need.

This year's outing is dedicated to the memory of Farmington Hills Police Sgt. Bertis Cook Jr., Police Officer Gary Bradley, and Franklin Police Officer Peter Thom.

The chief thanked the many sponsors and volunteers who made the outing another success. Dwyer said the live auction raised $24,000; the silent auction raised $54,995 and the raffle raised $7,429. DaimlerChrysler and Botsford Hospital each gave $10,000 to the association.

Other major sponsors were B&V Construction, G.R. Associates Limited Partnership and Hitachi Foundation.

People interested in donating their tax deductible support (IRS 501(c)(3)), may contact Dwyer at (248) 473-9602.
