Mrs. Samuel Lock died at the age of 51 years and four weeks at her home two miles north and one mile east of Farmington village on Wednesday, July 17, after many months' suffering from liver trouble. Before her marriage she was Dora Swartz and was born in Germany, coming to America with her parents when six years of age. She had been a resident of Farmington township for 33 years and had lived at the home where she died for the past 30 years. She was married to Samuel Lock on August 23, 1882. Five children were born to them, John H. of Rondo, Mich., George and Mrs. Edna Bachelor of Farmington, Leland and Edessa at home, who with the husband, three grandchildren, an aged mother, two sisters and three brothers, and a large circle of other relatives and a host of friends mourn their loss. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her for she was a kind and loving wife and mother and a good neighbor, always having a kind word and willing hand to help all who knew her. Funeral services were held at the home Friday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. D. M. Ward. Burial took place in Oakwood cemetery.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having decided to become a candidate for the office of sheriff of Oakland County on the Republican Ticket at the coming Primaries, I am taking this occasion to publicly announce my candidacy.

In aspiring for this important office I enter the campaign with the promise that if I am elected that I will give the duties of this office my best efforts with the hope of giving all the people a vigorous, business like and economical administration. Your support is respectfully solicited.

DWIGHT L. OLIVER

In these days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley's Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following. Sold by T. H. McGee.
