

FIRE FIGHTERS

his team post a 7-0 record, defeating the Baltimore City Fire Fighters in the championship game.

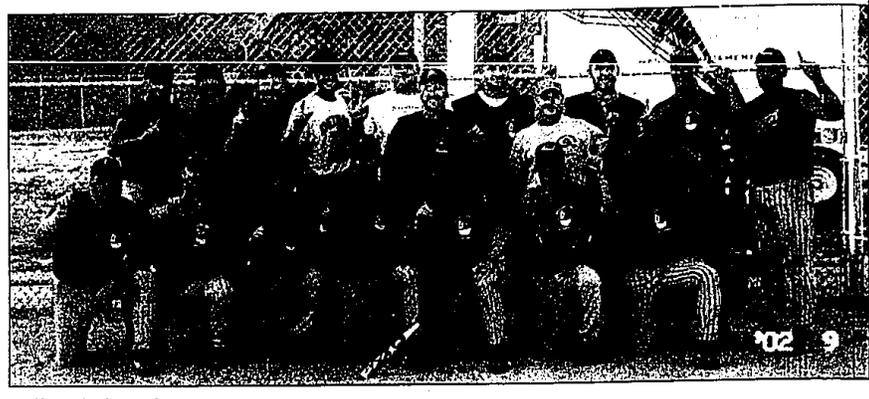

In an earlier contest with the same team, pitcher John McCoy (Shelby Township Fire Department) pitched a rare no-hitter in a 20-0 win.

Outfielder Tom Suchora of the Detroit Fire Department was named the tournament's most valuable player.

The other team members are Greg Thomas and Joe Toth, Sterling Heights; Jeff Smith, Mike Urban, Tom Jones, Russ Schaller and Tony Riggs, Detroit; Steve Henlon, Terry Elsey, Gary Glasshauer, Ron Courneya and Ed Vojtush, Shelby Township; Matt Maurier, Livonia; and Tim Prokop, Dearborn.

The Detroit Metro team also captured titles in the Indianapolis (Ind.) and Fort Wayne (Ind.) fire fighter softball tournaments during the summer.

All of the tournaments are benefit events raising money for various charities. The players and local sponsors pay for all costs associated with the tournaments (registration fees, food, lodging and transportation).
