Treasure Your Friendships

Some friendships do not last, but some friends are more loyal than brothers
Cindy Hines, Public Proverbs 18:24

Good friends, like all things in the world, seem to come and go. The friends we had during our childhood have grown and moved on with their lives. Our high school and college friends have relocated to better their careers. Friends that considered us as one time considered us as old friends have changed their minds and moved to other cities, and we have moved to new places. We have lost friends due to various situations, and it often hurt and depressing to lose a good, close friend. Everyone needs friends, and sometimes it's hard to find them. It is important for a satisfying and "constant" relationship. Our heavenly Father is the ultimate friend that everyone needs in this world, and knowing that He is our friend that we never leave, we should bring the voice of friends. The Bible tells us that a friend loves at all times (Proverbs 17:17). It tells us that God loves us so much that He gave His only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him, may not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16). God's friendship never dies, it's eternal, but God's friendship and love are eternal.
