Governor Wilson, in approving the letter sent out by Mrs. Wilson, offered what he thought might prove an explanation for the interview.

"I do not think it was mallcously invented," he said. "There is a rather well known writer who signs herself. Mrs. Wilson Woodrow, and she no doubt has been confused with Mrs. Wilson."

The Democrats are not taking the election of Wilson for granted. They are working and working harder than in a score of years and working as a united party.

Farmers have awakened to the folly of the so-called blessings of a protec-tive tariff.

Winning with Wilson means more than a mere Democratic victory it means restoring real prosperity.
