Hay fever and asthma make August a month of intense suffering to many people. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gives prompt ease and relief, and is soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes. Wm. M. Mercther, N. Searsport, Me., says: "A few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound relieved me of a severe attack of asthma and less than a bottle caused a complete cure." Refuse substitutes. Sold by T. H. McGee.

Auction Sale

On Friday, August 23, commencing at one o'clock, there will be an auction sale of farm implements, wagons, buggies, harness, household goods, horse, chickens, etc., on the premises known as the Frank Comstock farm, one and one-fourth miles north of Clarenceville.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. B. Meyers, Sr., is seriously ill. John Hoetger was in town last week. B. J. Meyers was in Pontiac Friday.

Mrs. J. Spaller of Detroit was in town Friday. Miss Lou Grace was at Straits lake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Vogt were in Detroit Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Monero of Northville was in town Friday.

Virgil Cannyt of Clarenceville visited friends here Monday. The Ladies' Aid society had a picnic at Bob-Lo Wednesday.

Miss Addie Beach now occupies Mrs. Ethel Grautham's house. Claude Stanley of Northville called at G. P. Conroy's Friday.

Mrs. Fred Carr and son, Kenneth, of Pontiac are visiting friends here. Regular meeting of O. E. S. of Farmington Friday, Aug. 30. Work.

Misses Elsie and Ruth Martin of Detroit visited at L. Gildemeister's Friday. John Voorheis visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Voorheis, Sunday.

Mrs. Witt of Oklahoma is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Thayer. Miss Ola Webster visited Miss Edessa Warner at Cass lake one day last week.

Rev. Clyde McGee and family of Chicago are guests of his mother, Mrs. A. McGee. Madames Wm. and Henry Pauline and their children were at Belle Isle Thursday.

George Green and wife of Livonia were callers at Norman Barber's Wednesday. Mrs. Roy Brown and daughter, Francis, are visiting at Toledo and other points this week.

Wm. Sprague now occupies the house owned by Sadie Thomas, opposite the Universalist church. Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert McDermott and son, J. C., of Highland visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur are entertaining the latter's aunt, Mrs. Haslem, and Mrs. Moors of Ashtabula, O. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gullen and baby are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gullen, at Brantford, Canada.

Mrs. C. Hoetger and Mrs. R. Larabee of Detroit and Mrs. Fred Vogt of North Farmington visited their mother, Mrs. Beuhard Meyers, Wednesday. Miss Ola Webster, who had been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Webster, returned to New York City Sunday.

Orra Robison, who left Farmington August 8th, is now making an extended tour of North and South Dakota. He expects to be gone about three months. Mr. and Mrs. DeCoursey R. Evans, who recently purchased the Chas. Wixom farm north of town, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Wednesday.

For State Senator in this district Berta A. Holden of Wixom is a prominent candidate. Those who best know him are enthusiastically for him. He stands as a candidate for all the people, is a leading and progressive farmer, an educated man with plenty of vim and if elected will be an able representative. Next Tuesday will be primary election day, but there seems to be but little stir over the matter. Only the aspirants for office are interested, apparently. However, the voters really should do their part and that is to turn out and signify their choice. That is the least that a real worthy American citizen can do and he ought to do it.

Mrs. Chas. Pray visited Pontiac friends last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Payne are visiting at Toledo, O. Mrs. Louis Gildemeister was in Northville Wednesday. Amos Otis and family were Ypsilanti visitors Sunday. Reed Webster and Andrew Crawford were in Detroit Tuesday. Miss Annael McMillan of Detroit is the guest of Miss Daisy McGee. Mrs. Sarah Dickens of Lansing visited her sister, Mrs. Van Cannyt Sunday. Mr. Stateman and daughter of Youngstown, O., are visiting at Henry Pauline's. Tracy Conroy of Clarenceville made relatives a brief call Wednesday last week. Mrs. Emma Hiles and Miss Fannie Jackson were in Pontiac the last of the week. Mrs. Fred Vogt of North Farmington visited her mother, Mrs. Beuhard Meyers, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons have moved to Novi, where he has opened a blacksmith shop. The cement sidewalk on the south side of Grand River avenue is being extended to the east. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hadley of Detroit visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Voigt, Sunday. There will be a milk meeting at the Grace House Saturday, Aug. 24, at 7:30 p. m. By order of committee. Two hose carts, 700 feet of hose and other necessary accessories were purchased this week by the common council. Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. E. J. Bradner and Mrs. M. F. Stanley of Northville were entertained at G. P. Conroy's last Thursday. Rev. James McGee addressed a full house in the M. E. church last Sunday morning. His subject, "Where do you live?" furnished the basis for an eloquent and helpful sermon. Homer Barber, wife and son, Allen, and also a sister-in-law, all of Charlotte, are making a visit at the home of the former's father, Norman Barber. While here Mr. Barber is overseeing repairs on the parental home. The services at the Farmington Baptist church Sunday, August 25, will begin at the usual hour, 3:00 p. m. Mr. Klump will take for his subject, "Rain." Everybody cordially invited to our services. Attention is called to the announcement of Frank L. Covert, in this issue, who aspires to the position of state senator from our district. No words from us are needed for Mr. Covert is too well known in Oakland county, where neither his ability nor integrity are questioned. Whatever one's opinion may be regarding the right of women to vote, the question is one of the big ones of the times and has got to be settled one way or the other very soon. A study of the subject will not hurt anyone. Turn out and hear one of the foremost speakers in the country next Sunday in the Methodist church. The board of stewards of the M. E. church wish to thank the people of Farmington and vicinity for their generous support during the past conference year. Conference is close at hand again. All accounts must be closed up inside of three weeks. If there are any who would still like to contribute toward the current expenses of the church their contributions would be very thankfully received by the stewards. D. L. Dickerson is secretary-treasurer of the board and would gladly receive your contributions at any time you find it convenient to see him in the hardware store or in his home. BOARD OF STEWARDS.

Village to Lose Popular Minister

It is with real sorrow and deepest regret that the Enterprise learns that Rev. G. E. Gullen will leave Farmington in a few weeks, at the close of the conference year. It is a case of necessity for the physicians insist that he must take a year's rest from preaching in order to preserve his health which has been badly broken of late. The editor of this paper believes there are few men in the ministry who, accomplish so much for the human welfare and for the betterment of the community in which they are laboring as Mr. Gullen does. He is not only an eloquent speaker, but, what is better, a sensible, broad-gauged man in every way. Wide-awake, public-spirited and full of energy, he has been a tireless worker for Farmington. His influence has been felt by the whole community and especially among the young people has he been a wonderful help. His manner and ways have won him the confidence and the respect of the people of the whole country hereabouts, and all denominations hold him as a friend and a counsellor. When George E. Gullen leaves, Farmington loses something worth while.

M. E. Church News

M. E. Services for Sunday, Aug. 25: 10:30 a. m. (Rev.) Dr. Ida Hultin of Boston, Mass., will speak. Dr. Hultin is a speaker of international fame, a famous Boston preacher, an associate of Dr. Anna Shaw, of Jane Addams of Chicago Hull House fame, and a life long friend of Dr. Lee S. McClester. Hearing that Dr. Hultin was in the city an effort was made at once to secure her for an address in Farmington. She was billed to speak in one of Detroit largest churches. "But Detroit people have many such opportunities, while the smaller towns may take care of themselves," it was pointed out to her. "That is too true," she kindly replied. "I came, years ago," with a smile, "from a small town myself. I know that they are neglected and I know, moreover, that they are worthy. I'll cancel my Detroit engagement and give you next Sunday morning. We were so thankful that we promised in the name of Farmington that the M. E. church would be crowded to hear her. Farmington will respond. Farmington has never failed us yet. We must have the largest crowd possible to hear Dr. Hultin. We are not anxious to make suffragists of anyone. We do not ask you to agree with all Dr. Hultin says. We; doubtless, will not ourselves, but we have always maintained that the church should take an intelligent interest in great
