

POLICE CALLS

Drunken driving
Police responded to a single vehicle accident along 11 Mile and Saratoga Circle around 5:16 a.m. Saturday. The driver of the damaged vehicle, a 17-year-old Farmington Hills boy, had a .20 blood alcohol level. Police responded to a call from the Hills Fire Department at Gorman's Warehouse on Industrial Drive. Firefighters checking on a fire alarm found it was a false alarm around 11:10 p.m. Saturday, however, a 34-year-old Sterling Heights man was found sleeping in his vehicle in the parking lot. Open intoxicant containers were inside the vehicle. When firefighters questioned him, he tried to leave the complex but firefighters blocked the entrance until police arrived. The man refused a breath test. Police responded to an accident on I-696 west of Inkster around 10:15 p.m. Monday. The driver, a 37-year-old Farmington Hills man, hit a tow truck that was attempting to pull an ambulance out of a ditch. No one was reported injured. The driver had a .24 blood alcohol level.

Fall to pay
At the Mobil gas station at 33350 W. 79 Mile, the driver of a black Lexus pumped $19.28 in gasoline into the vehicle and left without paying on Saturday.
At the Speedy gas station at 24242 Middlebelt, the driver of an older model Chevrolet pumped $19.94 in gasoline in the vehicle and left without paying on Monday.
Open house party
Police responded to an open house party in the 39035 block of Howard, where several teenagers were ticketed for consuming alcohol around 11:30 p.m. Saturday. The homeowners' daughter, 18, was hosting the party without her parents' knowledge.
Larceny
At the Autolab on Grand River, managers said someone pried open a cash box and took $50 from inside over the weekend. Officials have a suspect.

Solicitors caught
Police ticketed five people for soliciting donations in traffic without a permit on 12 Mile and Middlebelt on Monday. The solicitors said they were from the Church of David in Pontiac. Four of the suspects had outstanding warrants.
Drug possession
Police responded to a single vehicle accident along Middlebelt and Belfast around 4:55 p.m. Monday. The driver, a 64-year-old Royal Oak man, had a marijuana cigarette in his possession. Police pulled over a vehicle along Orchard Lake and 14 Mile around 9:20 p.m. Monday for an expired license plate. The driver, a 22-year-old Auburn Hills woman, had a baggie of marijuana and a pipe in the vehicle.

Local Jaycees honored as top chapter

This past weekend at the Michigan Jaycees 2002 year end assembly, the Farmington Area Jaycees were recognized as the top chapter of the 4th quarter in the entire state of Michigan. The recognition is based on programming by the chapter, activation of current members, recruitment of new members, communication, PR, and a host of other factors. The State of Michigan currently has over 85 active Jaycee Chapters. In the 13 different programming areas where individual projects are judged, the Farmington Jaycees took top honors in three of the 13 categories for projects run in 2002. Their annual Leadership Prayer Breakfast, 90-60-30 retention program, and On-Line Communications program took top honors in their respective categories. In addition, the Farmington Jaycee website, www.fajce.org, was recognized as the best in the state. The website was built and managed by member Betsy Ference. Of the approximately 250 local chapter Vice Presidents across the state, Farmington had two local Vice Presidents, Christine Ruiz and Stephanie Bessen, recognized as among the top 10. Stephanie was recently elected as the 2003 Farmington Area Jaycee President. Greg Fernandes, 2002 President, was recognized as one of the top 20 Presidents for the year and also received a Presidential Medallion of Honor. Member Mindy Fernandes (wife of Greg) was recognized as the top Michigan Jaycee State Vice President, and was also awarded a Presidential Medallion during the year. The Farmington Jaycees were recognized as the Chapter of the Year in their region, which encompasses 19 chapters in SE Michigan. Member of the community, Junior Chamber International, and Michigan Junior Chamber since 1946, the Farmington Area Jaycees offer leadership development, community service, networking, socials and fund-raising programming to anyone aged 21-39 whom wishes to take the opportunity.
