Grambling and Ferris State are interested in recruiting him.
"He works hard and has great post moves," Forritt said. 'His upside is going to be very big, He's quick up and down the floor and he can finish."

Kyle Wood, senior, Sesholm: A four-year varsity player, Wood had a reputation as an outside shooter. He made 71-0f-182 3-point shots for 39 percent this year and averaged 11.8 points overall.

overall. The 6-2 Wood ended his career with 761 points, placing him sixth on the school's alltime scoring list. He holds the Seaholm record for career

Seaholm record for career triples (190) and ranks 13th among the state's 3-point shooters with that number. Of all the players I we coached and gone against, none was as good a shooter from as far away from the basket as he was, 'coach keith Flart said. 'Opposing teams had to watch him at all times, because he was just a pass away from heating up and knocking down three or four triples in a row.'

Brandon Bradford, Junior, Country Day: The 6-foot point guard did more than handle the ball for the Yellow Jackets. Besides six assists, Bradford averaged 15.5 points and three steals.

"He was our glue," Plawecki said. "We look to him to be a said. We look to him to be a conch on the floor in terms of directing the offense. He's really a tough kid. He plays very hard and doesn't back down. "He's learned how to get other kids into the offense. He recognizes mismatches and what type of play to call depending on the situation."

Kassel James, Junior, Lathrup: The 6-1 point guard was the floor leader for the Chargers, averaging 5.5 assists, but he also contributed 12 points, five rebounds and two steals per

James helped lead 14-7 athrup to share of the OAA Lathrup to share of the OAA Division I championship with Pontiac Northern and Clarkston.

"He's a coach on the floor for me," coach Mike Avery said.
"He's a guy who needs to have the basketball late in the game. He's a good creator; he gets other guys open shots."

Tyrone Jordan, senior, Rochester: Jordan had a solid senior sea-son for the Falcons, scoring 10 points and dishing three assists per game. He scored 18 points twice against Southfield and per game, re-twice against Southtee nee vs. rival Adams.

David Merritt, Junior, West Bloomfield: Merritt was third in scoring and second in assists for the Lakers, but his forte was defense.

The 5-10 guard did score more than 20 points in three games, including 32 against Pontiac Central, and was in Pontiac Central, and was in double figures 14 times. "Dave is my best defensive player," Moore said. "He usually gets to guard the best offensive player on the other team. He guarded Giordan Watson every time and was instrumental in our three wins over Groves."

FOURTH TEAM

Anthony Williams, Junior, Lehser: Williams contributed equally at both ends of the floor and helped the Knights post a 14-8 record. The 6-foot-3 forward averaged 13.5 points and 7.2 rebounds. He made 35 percent of his field goals, and his athleticism was an asset on defense.

"Anthony was part of a balanced scoring attack that featured four players in double figures," coach Chris Drogosch said. "Anthony statcked the basket very well, finished strong and was a good rebounder. He had some key baskets in many close wins."

Jason Trotter, senior, Andover: he 6-foot-6 center averaged a double-double the last two seasons, and he led the county in scoring this year with 26.2 points per game. He also aver-aged 14 rebounds.

points per game. He also averaged 14 rebounds.

A three-year starter, Trotter averaged 30 points for more than half the season. He had a high game of 46 points and others in which he scored 40, 37, 33 and 31.

"Jason was pretty much meat and potatoes, not flash and dash," coach William Jones said. "College coaches who have seen him are impressed with his understanding of where he is under the basket. He stays within himself, keeping it simple and effective without trying to create highlights."

Mike Korynki, Innlor, Tor; The 6-1 guard was the Colts' top player, averaging 14 points and 5-5 rebounds. He scored a single-game high of 31 points against Ferndale and had 24 against Farmington Harrison. Korynki was a 70-percent free-throw shooter. "Mike is hard to guard because he can shoot the three and also put the ball on the because he can shoot the mand also put the ball on the floor and go to the basket," coach Gary Fralick said.

Mercus Hofman, Junior, Farmington: Good defense was the hallmark of the Farmington team, and Holman was one of its most tennatious defenders.
The 6-4 junior also averaged 10.3 points and 9.5 rebounds.
Marcus is aggressive and abbletic at both ends of the floor, coach Steve Norgrove said. "He's a tough competitor who can be a dominating who can be a dominative rebounder. He's a consipost player who can step out and create on the perimeter. He is tough to guard and only get-ting better."

Gery Kennedy, Junior, Morth Farmington: Kennedy's first year of varsity ball was a good one. He started all 21 games and led the Raiders in scoring with 15 points per game. He scored a career-high of 31 points in one same.

game.
"He had as good a junior year as anyone I've coached," Negoshian said. "He has an uncanny ability to score."

Jason Jones, Junior, Lathrup: he 6-4 guard/forward is rated Jason Jones, Jmlor, Luthrup:
The 6-9 guard/forward is rated a Division I college prospect, as well as James, by his coach.
Jones averaged 16 points, 14
rebounds and three blocked shots.

"His strength was inside-outside play," Avery said. "I can rely on Jason to give me strong, tough moves around the basket, and he also can atep outand his the 3-point shot. He ket, and he also can step out and hit the 3-point shot. He was a sleeper in (the OAA), I thought. He came on strong and was pretty consistent for us."
