Merely also returns senior Pam Rowan and junior Angela Leon. Juniors Lauren Mack and Ashley Mascioli have moved up from the JV, and two freshmen made the varsity - Kaitlyn Mardeusz and Joanna Cibrario.

The Marlins will be favored to win the league title again, but they'll have to contend with Rochester, which had just one senior last year, in the county and state meets.

Kowalski thinks Grosse Ile, a perennial Division III power which has moved up to Division I, is the early favorite to win the state championship.

Livonia Stevenson, Northville and Port Huron Northern also will have good teams, according to Kowalski.

"My girls are ready to go; they want to contend, so we'll just have to see what happens," she said.

Kowalski added she had 10 girls break 50 during tryouts.

"You have to be on your toes and do your best in whatever circumstances to stay in the lineup," she said.

"Then it will all come down to average at the end (to determine who plays in the regional and state tournaments)."
