Put on the Armor of God

Although it may seem odd to think of the instruments of war as being only in righteous, if we are "for God," then we must be against the enemies of God. This may require us to take an active role in battling the enemies of holiness and righteousness. Each day we are faced with the problems and decisions of the world. But handling our daily affairs and dealing with others in a good and ethical manner will make us stronger and draw us closer to our Heavenly Father. How should one prepare for this cosmic battle of good versus evil? First and foremost, we should put on the breastplate of righteousness while wearing the helmet of faith. Faith, righteousness, strong beliefs and good works are the essential pieces of God's armor. These, along with daily prayer and the confidence that comes from knowing we are God's warriors, are sure to make us invincible.

Be watchful, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong. R.S.E. 1 Corinthians 16:13
