Garden Party festivities start Friday night with 'Ball'

This year's St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center Garden Party - billed as the best of Big Ole Jambos and New Orleans right here in Farmington Hills - will be held Sunday, June 8.
 But the fun starts Friday night, with a pre-event called simply, "The Ball" will be held Friday, June 6, beginning with hors d'oeuvres served at 6:45 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m., music for dancing and a live auction at 9 p.m. Those who attend will enjoy fine dining courtesy of Shiraz and an exquisite selection of fine wines, overseen by sommelier Madeline Trifon, wine director for the Unique Restaurant Corporation.
 The Ball is sponsored by Elliot Development, LLC.
 Sunday's celebration, the Center's largest annual fund-raiser, begins with a VIP reception at noon, during which guests will experience exceptional wines from around the world and preview the featured cuisine. Fifty area restaurants are participating, from The Loving Spoonful, Tribune and Vineyards Cafe & Catering of Farmington Hills, to The Townsend in Birmingham.
 The Garden Party opens to the public at 1 p.m., which is also when the silent auction begins, followed by a live auction at 3 p.m. Premiere wine-tasting packages include a 7 day/6 night trip to St. Malo, France and stay at Chateau Bonaban for two. The historic castle is located on 65 acres just an hour and a half away from Paris. Golf lovers will appreciate four clubhouse badges to the 2003 Buick Open at Warwick Hills Golf Course in Grand Blanc July 28-Aug. 3.

 Other vacation packages range from a weekend trip at Mission Point Resort on Mackinac Island to a weekend getaway for two at the Ritz, with complimentary dinner at The Grill.
 On the more affordable end of the scale, parents might want to watch out for two cooking classes for kids, two gift certificates to D&B Mystery Dinner Theater and a day at Capelli Spa.
 The sponsors for The Garden Party are Ford and MNP Corporation.
 Tickets for the Ball and Garden Party are available; a Ball & Garden Party Package for eight is available for $3,000, with reserved table seating and valet parking at both events. Guardian Package for eight to the Garden Party and VIP reception on June 8 is $1,700, and the Benefactor Package, for six, is $1,200.
 Individual tickets for the Garden Party are available at $150 each; The Ball tickets are $190.
