Showings of the new line are being timed to tie in with the opening of the automobile shows in leading cities throughout the country.

Make Your Aprons of Paper

A DOZEN basting stitches, a half roll of cheap crinkled crepe paper, and an apron is made which never knows the labor of ironing or washing day. Its life is shorter than cotton, but its expense is infinitely less, and its labor is nil.

A half roll is taken for the skirt, a double band for the waist. A small section for the bib and two crinkled straps fitted at the edges make quick decoration to take the place of lace or embroidery. There is enough paper left from the single inexpensive roll to make another shorter apron.

The new paper table cloths are also a great saving in ironing, and they can be purchased in packages of one dozen, with the varied designs of linen cloths put into them.

Crepe paper dust caps are a better protection to the hair while cleaning than those made of loosely woven cotton. We also get the message that at the smart boarding and day schools the little girls are wearing generous bows on their hair of bright crepe paper to take the place of expensive ribbons. The bows are first made and then fastened to the hair with the usual small comb or loop of tape.
