6th DISTRICT SCHOOL NOTES

Second and Third Grades

The following story was written by Alfred Erwin, telling about the second grade:

Our Grocery Store

We have a grocery store.

We have real groceries.

We use toy money and really buy things.

We are learning to make change.

We have can goods, butter, eggs and box goods.

We use the reading table for our store.

I was the storekeeper this morning. Russell wanted some brown sugar. Lawrence bought some tea.

Alfred Erwin, second grade

The third grade have completed their Dutch village on the sand table.

Friday, March 23, is a County Teachers' Institute at Pontiac.

Appliances sold by us are guaranteed unconditionally for one year

WAFFLES

Chocolate, gingerbread, or spiced waffles (there are many delicious kinds besides the familiar plain ones); whatever the variety, they are a delightful treat. Light and golden, served piping hot and crisp, waffles make any meal a thing to be remembered. The electric waffle iron, standing on the table at your elbow, provides delicious waffles—without grease, without unpleasant odor, without the slightest trouble.
