"THREE THINGS ARE NEEDED TO BUILD BUSINESS"—CLEARY

Says "Service And Personality Will Make Business Grow."
If You Figure Right"If you keep the ideal of 'profit through service' and put personality into your business, it will surely grow. If you figure right," P. R. Cleary of Ypsilanti, president of the Cleary Business College told a meeting of Farmington business people at the High School Wednesday evening."Service, personality, and right figuring are essential to developing a business," continued Mr.
Cleary. "If you give the people what they want price will cut in
vided you figure right.""Forget all about cost in figuring profit," the speaker advised.
"It's on the sale that you make and you should figure profit or the sale. This is the point, where so many businesses fall down and so many men fail.""If the people on the outside knew as much about the business as those on the inside, they would all gladly pay the price you ask," said Mr. Cleary. "They would see that practically every business man works on a small margin of profit."Mr. Cleary gave each person forms upon which a simple but effective system might be based.
About a dozen business men were in attendance.

CURRENT HUMOR

Full of It

"Is she capable of affection?"
"Capable? She's positively contiguous."

Experience

"Do you believe in hell on earth?"
"Sure. I put on an amateur play once."

Exchange

"Boss, kin I go to the ball game?"
"Yes, if you'll work extra innings tomorrow."

Of What?

"Does your daughter speak Spanish?" "I should think so—like a native."—"Tut-tut."

In Love

"Why is those kn the roof with a telescope?" "Aw, she's lookin' for a letter by air mail."

Fair Enough

"You are having the duke's title searched?" "Why not? He has investigated my fortune."

An Impossibility

She—"I am very sorry but you must forget me." He—"Impossible! You see I'm a memory expert."

Simple and Effective

"How does he and his wife get along together now?" "By being together as little as possible."

Best Plan

"This is a one-way street."
"Still, we'd better look both ways."
