he Latch-Key

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1929

EDITORIAL

EDITORIAL

Have you ever experienced the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the nation of heing suddenly desited a fall will be compared to the heingt suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the heingt suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the heingt suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the heingt suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the heingt suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly desited to fall will be compared to the suddenly designed to the suddenly design

This issue of the Latch-Key was prepared under great difficulties. Due to the intervention of spring vacation only two days were left to work on the "copy." The staff was further handicaped by the departure of the Seniors for Washington and the absence from school of Eleanor sence from school of Eleanor Perry and Marian Erwin.

The Library Corner Helen Burrowes

Several books in the library, although they are not written for children, have very life-like children in them. Booth Tarkington is well-known for his depiction of child life and "Seventeen." 'General build life and bas more imagination in his child charactery, as "The Golden Age shows. The life and buy's life.

The first lells of a boy of about 1 years, the second shows, as the name suggests; a boy of 17 typers, the second shows, as the name suggests; a boy of 21 whose world is wrapped up in "Gentle Julia." Florence and lerbert Atwater, 13, are quite prominent characters also.

"The Golden Age", tells of five children, the youngest of the life of the difference of the life of the life

Honor Roll For Month

Of March Announced

BID SENIORS FAREWEL

BID SENIORS FAREWELL
A crowd of nearly 100 parent and friends gathered in front of the High School building Thurs day afternoon to see the Schiors board the bus which was to take them on the first lap of their four to Washington.
Students swarmed at every window to wave farewell.

RE-ELECTED PRESIDEAT
Philo McCulley was unanimously elected president for his second term at the annual election of officers of the Hi-Y Tuesday atternoon. Glenn Werner suceeds Henry Otis as vice-president. Kenneth Langbecker is the new treasurer and Roy Young the secretary.

Marian Erwin freshman squarantined with her brothers Edward, kindergarten and J. W. third grade, who have scarletina

Pitching quoits is a spring sport which some of the athletic members of the faculty are enjoy-ing.

CAROL HARGER GAINS GRADE TITLE IN

MANY TEACHERS VISIT

HOMES DURING VACATION
Dispite the shortness of Easter vacation, many of the teachers went home or visited friends.
Those going home were: Miss Intgalls, Bryan, O.; Miss Hyde; Collinis O.; Miss Miel, Six Lakes;
Mich.; Mr. Rohver, Grass Lake;
Mich.; Mr. Rohver, Grass Lake; Mirs, Brethour, Grand Rapids, to' the home of her parents, Mr.; and Mrs. L. Lawson; Miss Roe, Evirt.
Mr. Blisbee, Reed City; Miss
Cargbell, Kalamazoo; Mr. Eaton
Lansing, Monday and Tuesday.
Mr. Hall spent his vacation in Lansing and Detroit; Mr., and Mrs. Green visited the former's mother, Mrs. L. F. Green in Chicapo; Miss Leonardson spent her time with friends in Hillsdale
Miss Wondergem wisited in Constatine, and Miss Heaton in [Pint
Mr. Baker attended the annual
Mr. Baker attended the annual
Set of the Michigan Education Association at Lansing the early part of vacation. The latter part he spent at his home near Ovid.

ROYS RASERALL SCHEDILE

BOYS BASEBALL SCHEDULE April 26—Northville, there May 3—Ypsilanti, here. May 10—Dearborn, there. May 17—Wayne, here. May 24—Plymouth, here. Girls baseball practice start April 3.

Lois Young and Inez Weston both of the class of '28, visited school Wednesday. Lois is taking a Public Speaking course at Mincigan State Teachers College in Ypsilanti. Inez is attending Cleary Business College.

gages, 1133 Geboold Afree, Defaul Michigan, OTICE OF FORECLOSURE—Defaul aving been made in the terms an anditions of a cortain mortgage mad

Michigan,
Dated, Murch 22, 1929.
HARRY J. MERRITT.
*April 11 Circuit Court Commission