WIT AND HUMOR IN DICKENS' WORKS SUBJECT OF CLUB

The regular meeting of the Farmington Woman's Club was held Wednesday, April 10, at the home of Mrs. Fred Cook, who also had in charge the program for the day, "Wit and Humor in Dickens." A set of table linen, the woven patterns of which showed scenes from Dickens' novels, was an interesting exhibit.

Mrs. Cook gave a careful analysis of the qualities of Dickens' humor; Mrs. Bicking dealt ably with Gairy Camp, and Mrs. Heaney with Micawber; well-known excerpts read gave point and flavor to the characterization. Miss Boynton read from Pickwick, and Miss Hard from Great Expectations.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. D. Fleming Wednesday, April 24. Miss Sprague will have charge of the program.

On Thursday, April 25, the F. W. C. will be the guests of the Redford Woman's Club, at 2:00 o'clock, in the Redford Baptist Church. The speaker of the afternoon will be Miss Edwin L. Colgin of Detroit, who will talk on "Principles of Art in Furnishings."
