The first Sunday in May will be appropriately recognized in the services of the church and all the people are invited to share in their enjoyment and blessing. Dr. Leeson will have as his sermon subject "The Sower." And Mr. Apple, the choir director has promised an unusually beautiful anthem, "May Day" will also be celebrated in the Sunday School as announced by the Superintendent Wells D. Butterfield and the pastor are especially invited.

The Sunday evening congregation is invited to return the regular hour of 7:30 o'clock. For the past ten Sundays, it has seemed very convenient and pleasing to have the earlier service at 5:30. The longer days now seem to warrant the return to the 7:30 hour.
