WOMEN OF THIS SECTION PLAN FOR ACHIEVEMENT DAY

Members of Nutrition Groups To Attend Annual Gathering At Pontiac

Women of nutrition groups in this section will be among the women members of the nutrition groups of Oakland County who will hold their annual Achievement Day at the Congregational Church in Pontiac on Wednesday, May 8. These groups have been studying under the Extension Service offered by Michigan State College with Miss Elizabeth P. Weld Home Demonstration Agent, the County representative.

This all-day meeting which is open to everyone, will consist of a fine program, a luncheon with its own program and exhibits which have been arranged by the various groups. Dr. Caroline Hedger of the Elizabeth McCormick Memorial Fund of Chicago will be the principal speaker of the day. Dr. Hedger is nationally known and the women of Oakland County feel very fortunate to be able to have her with them at this time.

It is expected that 500 women from all parts of the county will attend this meeting. Each group has contributed to the success of the day and the work of the year although special credit should be given to the County Committee which consists of Mrs. Arthur Green, chairman of Walled Lake; Mrs. Charles Potteous, Royal Oak; Mrs. Alex Baldwin, Oxford; Mrs. Morris Belford, Holly; Mrs. H. K. Smith, Pontiac; Mrs. Ira Carnes, Walled Lake; and Mrs. Clifford Shaw of Milford.
