WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS VISIT BOTSFORD HOUSE

Farmington Women Enjoy Trip Through Historic Inn On Grand River

On the afternoon of Wednesday, June 5, the members of the Farmington Woman's Club visited the Botsford Inn.

After the party, under the direction of M. H. Apple, had inspected the beautiful antique furnishings and the interesting mementos and relics of a former-time, they went to the nearby home of Mrs. Elmer Doheny where they enjoyed Mrs. Doheny's hospitality at a picnic supper. This was brought to a close the Club's activities for 1928-1929.

The first meeting of the Fall will be held October 9.
