

Eight Pounds Is All She Needs

Eight pounds of Larro Growing Mash is all it takes to turn a six-week-old chick into a big, husky, healthy pullet all ready for high profit production in the laying pen. It brings the birds into production at the right age, with plenty of the kind of vigor it takes to ward off common poultry ailments and stand up under heavy continued egg production.

WEST POINT PARK.

Mrs. William Zwahlen.
Phone 335-F3

Miss Lenna McCully, who has been making her home at Pontiac, returned home Sunday, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McCully.

Mrs. Clarence Smith and two daughters of Novi, who have been attending West Point church regularly, moved to Detroit, Monday, where Mrs. Smith expects to take up her old position with the Edison Company.

George Gullen, who visited in Flint last Sunday, will be with us again next Sunday.

John Meyers of Detroit, spent the latter part of last week as the guest of William D. Zwahlen, Jr.

Miss Nancy McLoughlin of Wyandotte, returned home Saturday, after a week's visit with her friend, Miss Alice Burchem, taking Alice with her.

West Point Park has new numbers on the homes, placed by the Edison company.

Miss Dorothy Gerge was the Sunday guest of Miss Shirley Zwahlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cummings and Mrs. Marian Loney from Detroit, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Margaret Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerge and daughter, Dorothy, spent Wednesday and Thursday at Orr Lake, with friends, fishing.

Mrs. Thomas Edmunds of Detroit, was the Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. Wm. Zwahlen.

Mrs. Snyder and daughter, Mrs. Hutchinson from Detroit, were guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Harold Trotter, Saturday.

The Adult Bible class will meet at the home of Mrs. Ethel Middlewood, and will all go to see "After Dark" at Detroit, next Wednesday, July 10. All going are asked to report Sunday, to Mrs. Lloyd Gullen, president of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Trotter and two sons, William and Clifford, attended a family reunion at Ed. Meyers' Farm just off Ten Mile road, last Sunday. About 120 were present.

The Ladies' Community Club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Mercer, July 10, for a pot-luck dinner. All are asked to come and bring one dish.

If a couple of men get along it's a sure bet their wives will dislike each other on sight.

Most children have their parents pretty well sized up.
