From Wooster, Ohio comes news of the wedding of Miss Irma Jean Railback of Indianapolis, who became the bride of John F. Hering Cincinnati at 9:00 a. m. on June 27 in St. James Episcopal church.

The bride was attended by Miss Marcella Thorbeck and the groom by Charles W. Dean, both of Cincinnati. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Charles M. Samson of Farmington, Mich. The groom, officiated at the ceremony.

The marriage service was preceded by a Nuptial Holy Eucharist. The marriage ritual started with the Lohengrin march and closed with the Mendelssohn march.

During the service Mrs. E. M. Hering of Greenville sang "Oh Promise Me," with A. R. Williams organist of St. James church presiding at the organ. Dr. Archie Crandell acted as master of ceremonies.

After the church ceremony an informal wedding breakfast was served at the rectory.

The guests were members of the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Hering left at noon on a motor trip through the east. They will reside in Cincinnati, where Mr. Hering is a member of H. Ratterman jewellers.

The bride previous to her marriage was a member of the staff of the Episcopal Children's hospital of Cincinnati.

OPEN AIR CHURCH SERVICES AGAIN PLANNED IN PARK

Baptist Church Sponsors Sunday Evening Meetings Beside Town Hall.

Following the custom of the past two summers the Farmington Baptist Church will hold Sunday evening services in the Town Hall park at Grand River and Farmington Roads, beginning next Sunday evening.

The summer services held last year, and the year before proved popular, and a good attendance prevailed throughout. Many motorists passing through town availed themselves of the service.

The entire community is invited by Rev. Elmer W. Palmer to attend. The service will be the only church worship in Farmington on Sunday evening during the summer. It is expected that members of other churches will participate in the programs.

Sunday evening Joseph Himelspan will sing a solo, and the Auten sisters will play a piano duet. The song service will have a prominent part. Rev. Palmer will preach at this meeting and throughout July.

In case of stormy weather the service will be held in the Town Hall.

Walled Lake Girl Is Bride Of Detroit

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coc announce the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude Laurine to Ralph L. Taylor of Detroit.

They were married at the bride's home, 435 E. Main street, Walled Lake, Monday evening, by the Rev. Dr. Hoag of the Woodward Avenue Baptist Church, Detroit.

Mr. Taylor formerly taught school at McBaine, Mich. and for the past three years has been with the Ford Motor Co. of Detroit. The Misses Beatrice Taylor and Eloise Coc were the bride's maids with Miss Irene Coc as the maid of honor. Mr. Taylor was attended by his brother, Clifford Taylor.

The couple received many beautiful gifts. Supper was served to relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left Tuesday for a two weeks' trip to New York state and Upper Michigan, after which they will be at their new home at 1938 Cameron avenue, Detroit.

We wish to thank our friends for the kindness shown during our recent bereavement; special thanks to Dr. A. H. Leeson and Mrs. Wm. Walters.

Farmington Residents At Trenton Wedding

Miss Nellie Jinne Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Adams of Trenton, became the bride of Gerald W. Erwin at a pretty wedding on Thursday June 27, solemnized in the First Methodist Episcopal church in Trenton.

Donald McIntyre of Farmington was the ring-bearer, and Betty Erwin and Agnes Smith were the flower girls.

The bride wore ivory satin and a veil edged with Duchesse lace and was draped from a cap of tulle, pearls and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was composed of brides' roses, valley lilies and sweet peas. The matron of honor, Mrs. George Farrar of Detroit, wore sea green tulle, and carried pink roses and orchid sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Chase Adams of Dearborn, and Miss Ellen Adams of Munden City wore peach and orchid gowns, tulle and tulle respectively, and carried bouquets of roses and baby breath.

Chase Adams was best man, and the ushers were Roderick Ervin and George Farrar.

The wedding service was read by Rev. W. H. Young, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Trenton.

After the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents for guests, among whom were the following Farmington people: Misses Amanda and Victoria Markham, Leona Gary, Harold Markham, Mrs. Emma Hollister and M. A. McIntyre, daughter, Gertrude and son, Donald.

Detroit Woman's Club Meets In Farmington

The Detroit Business Woman's club met at the home of the club's president, Emily H. Butterfield of Farmington, Thursday evening, June 27. After a picnic supper on the lawn, the business meeting was held.
