OAKLAND-PONTIAC FLEET

SALES UP 50 PER CENT

The fact that the number of prominent American companies using fleets of Oakland and Pontiac Sixes more than doubled during the first six months of this year offers the ultimate proof of "low cost per mile" in these two automobiles according to W. L. Shacner, manager of the fleet sales for the Oakland Motor Car Company.

"On the basis of the facts, fleet owners during the first half of this year purchased 54 per cent more Oakland and Pontiac Sixes than they bought during the corresponding period of 1928.

WHEN MEN "OPEN UP"

At those times when men exchange impressions and hopes—when they recite events of the past to prove their forecasts for the future—then the real value of substantial financial reserves is made plain.

At such times, too, the important part that cooperation of an institution such as this can play in helping clients to attain their goals, is brought out. For here you will find officers who look at things from your viewpoint—who grasp the details of your requirements readily and fully, and adapt our service to the situation.

This unusual ability to work closely with every customer will be valuable to you—if you'll try it. Let's talk it over—today.
