KILLED ROBINS, JAILED

A year ago the Robins was voted as Michigan's most representative bird. Because Nonzo, Tasti and Vincentz Ecuinozio killed 11 of them they are spending 60 days in jail. At the end of that time they must pay fines of $100 each or remain in jail for 90 days more. In addition to that punishment their automobile was seized.

The two men were arrested by Special Conservation Officer Edward Seidow near Detroit.

COMMISSIONERS'

PROCEEDINGS

Regular meeting of the City Commissioners of Farmington, held October 21, 1929.

Called to order by Mayor Lamb at 6:38 p. m. Commissioners present, Hatton, Hogle, Gildemeister, Otis, Staman and Gers.

Minutes of the meeting of October 7 read and approved.

A communication was received from the Township Board saying that they would discontinue the use of the police booth on and after November 16.

A statement from George K. Checkett was received in regard to some work done for the City.

Moved by Hogle, seconded by Gildemeister, that the bill of Checkett be allowed and paid.

Carried.

Moved by Hogle, seconded by Gildemeister, that the City purchase a Ford truck. Some discussion followed in regard to the merits of two different makes of trucks.

Motion prevailed. Yeas: Hatton, Otis, Staman, Hogle. Nays: Gildemeister. Gers not present when vote was taken.

November 5 and 6 were named as cleanup-up days. Waters Lee was named as city fireman in place of Claude Lee.

Adjourned.

N. H. POWER, City Clerk.

TO WEAR RED BUTTONS

Flaming red buttons will grace the caps of deer hunters in Michigan woods next month.

The 1929 resident and non-resident deer licenses are now being shipped from the Department of Conservation.

Each license is accompanied by a button red for residents and green for non-residents.

The department is distributing 70,000 resident and 2,500 non-resident licenses.

"Let There Be Light"

this was taking place, Edison would fold his hands, compose himself as if he were in sound sleep, and when the lights were full again would apparently wake up, with the remark, "Well boys, we've had a fine rest; now let's pitch in to work again!"

ONLY a mind and a body possessing such amazing stamina could have withstood such fatigue as Mr. Edison imposed upon himself—to the extent, on one occasion, of going five days without sleep. It is small wonder that such perseverance was rewarded with over 1500 patents in the United States alone.

Mr. Edison is credited with saying that if he has achieved anything worthwhile, it is due to the obstinacy and tenacity inherited from his forefathers. Equally indicative of the man's overwhelming modesty is his classic remark, "Genius is 1 per cent inspiration and 99 per cent perspiration."

By example, by genial companionship, Mr. Edison maintained a remarkable enthusiasm and esprit de corps in his laboratories. Here is a normal, loving American—plain, placid, affectionate, beloved by all his associates. Self-educated, with only three months of formal schooling, this newsboy and candy butcher lived to be decorated for his benefactions to mankind with the honors of all the leading nations and scientific societies of the earth.

BECAUSE Thomas Alva Edison lived and worked, until millions of people were happier, more comfortable, more intelligent citizens. Because of his inventions, industries geared its mechanism to electrical power, the world is brighter with electric light, and men and women everywhere are saved the toil now shouldered by electrical devices, in home and factory. Without the inventions of Edison, there might today be no motion picture industry, no phonographs, no electric railways, no practical telephone. A hundred industries are more productive because he lived.

The inventions of Thomas Alva Edison will serve his fellowmen for unnumbered generations.

This is the last of a series of historical mementos published by The Detroit Edison Company.
