LEGION AUXILIARY OF 6th DISTRICT HOLDS MEETING

Women Come From Many Other Units In Sixth District To Attend

American Legion Auxiliaries of the Sixth District were well represented here at the Sixth District meeting which was held at the Salem Evangelical Church, Farmington, last Thursday.

Representatives from the following units were present: Rochester, Royal Oak, Brighton, Northville, Lansing Pontiac, Farmington, Flint, Mason, Berkeley, Birmingham and Oxford, besides visitors from Detroit.

The Sixth District committee woman, Margaret Ogden of Pontiac presided, twelve of the fourteen units comprising the Sixth District being present.

A message was read from the Department president, Mrs. Minerva Olson, who was unable to attend on account of illness. The week of November 11-18 has been designated as "Membership Week." Mrs. Ogden stressed the need of larger unit memberships to keep up our program of child welfare and rehabilitation.

Everyone in this community and surrounding territory eligible for membership in this unit, is urged to get in touch with the Unit Membership Chairman, Miss Minnie Maas, who will supply the necessary information.

At a regular meeting, held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Schaepper Monday night the Farmington unit started its work for 1930. Checks for $35 will be mailed out this week to buy fruit, smokes, etc., for the children at the Billie and soldiers in Battle Creek hospitals. The unit is also getting ready their annual Winter package of slippers, pajamas and bathrobes for the American Legion Hospital at Battle Creek.

A letter will be written to Michigan senators at Washington, asking for more hospital facilities for those men who are afflicted with tuberculosis and mental troubles.

I. Lueke, Historian.

FORDSON PROVES AN EASY FOE FOR NORTHWESTERN

Score Is 33 To 0 In Game Played In Rain On Muddy Field; Robinson In 70-Yd. Run

Northwestern Athletic Club's football team added another victory last Sunday, defeating the Fordson A. C. gridiron squad on a field deep in mud. The score was 33 to 0.

Although the Fordson team was reported to be a fast and strong aggregation, Northwestern found them easier than most opponents and scored five touchdowns. Coach Rowold's men also held their opponents without difficulty when Fordson had the ball, and the visiting team never threatened to score.

Captain George Robinson provided a thrilling 70-yard run for a touchdown on a fake play. Gates played brilliantly at end, and Paul Nichols and Red Barnwell, linemen, also starred.

Before the game the Northwestern players presented Captain Robinson with a gold ring in appreciation for his loyal service to the club. Harold Markham refereed the game, with Dr. Dean Elsie as head linesman.

Next Sunday Northwestern will play again at their field on Middle Belt road, the opponent yet to be announced.
