IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Hazard Vanderburgh, who died one year ago, December 3.

No one knows how much we miss you.

No one knows the bitter pain; We have suffered since you left us.

Life has never been the same. Friends may think we have forgotten

When at times they see us smile But they little know the heart aches

Which our smiles hide all the while Father, Mother, Sisters and Brother.

FAILURE AND SUCCESS

Are you discouraged, by failure? Then you will fail.

Most of the little failures and little successes are unimportant skirmishes in the battle of life. They are the maneuvering, the testing of the opposing lines, the finding weak spots and strong spots.

In the hour of skirmish lost, or in the zest of skirmish won, it is well to remember that the great battle is yet to be fought. The man who is stricken in heart by the little defeats and the man who is palsied in mind by the little victories will be on par when the real test comes.

Our little failures and little successes are about equally willing to serve us. They will be very useful if we give them the chance. But, if we accept either blindly, as a gift of fate or circumstance, we might as well quit the fight.

The man who, in defeat, can put his finger on the cause of his defeat—the where and why and the how of it—is already well on the road to ultimate victory.

And the man who, in victory, knows how he won, and wherefor, will win again, and more gloriously.—Harvard (Ill.) Herald.

The Car For WINTER Weather

More than ever now are driving advantages of the New FORD Car apparent. As wintry winds blow and snow covers the highways — watch the New FORD Cars. See how they skim along the roads speedily, yet in perfect safety—because their remarkable balance and unique construction prevents skidding. Because their sets of six brakes make for sure, quick stops—easy steering aids in traffic jams, and quick get-away clears the road ahead.

Sturdy bodies with closely-fitted doors keep out the cold. The famous Ford reliability assures dependable service in any weather.

For winter driving—as for all other seasons—"there's nothing quite like it."
