Don't let your family wear worn shoes this Winter. It's dangerous and expensive!

FAKER GETS LETTERS IN CARE OF SHERIFF

One volunteer "member" of the star of poultry specialists at Michigan State College is now in the Cheboygan County jail. This man has called on poultrymen throughout Michigan and after examining a flock of birds would prescribe remedies which were supposed to cure everything from frosted combs to burn blizzard. He stated that he was on the staff at Michigan State College.

The suspicions of a Cheboygan County farmer when the faker killed a fat hen, pronounced it deceased and offered to sell medicine brought the salesman into the hands of the police.

A telephone call to the County Agricultural Agent will enable any farmer to check up on the claims of salesmen who say they are from the College.

Dreaded Dentist's Drill

The sound of a dentist's drill so unnerved Mrs. H. N. Reed as she was waiting to get in a dentist's chair at Kansas City that she ran to a window and plunged eleven stories to her death.
