IN WESTERN CANADA IT IS CERTAIN.

The story of the Big Farmer in Western Canada, and the immense profits he has made in the growing of grain, has been told and retold. He has been found in all parts of the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. His splendid farm buildings have been pictured, his traction outlits described and his princely surroundings, resultant of his success in growing grain, have been portrayed by letter, press and camera. It certainly is not to his discredit that by successfully applying common genes and when the chart of the control of the common sense and the chart of the control of the chart of the chart of the chart of the control of the control of the control of the control of the chart of the control of the control of the chart of the control of the control of the control of the chart of the control of the chart of the
