IN MEMORIAM
 In memory of our dear beloved husband and father, John Turner, who left us January 7, 1927.
 Oh, for words to tell
 The sadness in our hearts;
 Have faith, God is our friend;
 Be glad for memories sweet.
 Of one we loved and lost—
 With faith that we shall meet When life's divide is crossed.
 —His loving wife and children.

 Along the roadside, like the flowers of gold,
 The tawny leas for their gardens
 And with sunshine droops the goldenrod;
 He and the red pennons of the cardinal Hang motionless upon their upright staves.
 —Whittier.

TRY THESE
 Planning something for each meal, day by day, gets to be almost trying strain at times. If everybody liked and could eat all kinds of the good things provided, the problem would be less difficult. We have youth; age, convalescence and those on diet as well as the hearty, healthy ones.
 Each must have proper consideration. If we are fulfilling our duty as housekeeper, for the family.

A delicious cake, which makes one that one need not fear to serve to the most exacting of guests, is prepared as follows: Make a chocolate cake and bake in a square tin, using any favorite recipe that is not too rich.
 When it is cool, cover the top with the following fruit mixture: Take one cupful of dates; cut fine, add two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one-half cupful of water and one-half cupful of sugar. Cook until thick, cool and spread over the top of the cake, then cover with any white frosting, boiled, or confectioner's sugar.

For a white cake use a recipe for a good ordinary cake, bake in the same kind of a tin and cover with a top of fruit, using a cupful of pineapple instead of the dates. Such cakes keep moist and are not too rich to serve to the children occasionally.

Creamed Sardines.—Drain from all one can of sardines. Remove the bones and skin and mash. Melt one-fourth cupful of butter, add one-fourth of a cupful of bread crumbs and one cupful of cream. When thoroughly heated add two hard-cooked eggs finely chopped, the sardines and pepper if needed and serve on toasted buttered bread.

Cheese Canapes.—Toast circular pieces of toast, spread with butter, then French mustard and sprinkle with a thin layer of cheese, seasoned with salt and cayenne. Place on a baking sheet and bake until the cheese is melted; serve hot.

 Perhaps, the most significant achievement of Chevrolet this year was the placing of a million cars on the road in less than eight months. Although the first Chevrolet six did not go onto the streets until last January first, there were a million in owner operation early last August.
