Methodist Church H. Addis Leeson, Pastor

The Golden Key Class, a very active and helpful club of the younger women of the church, has presented to all the members of the congregation and the Sunday School a small edition of the Gospel of Matthew. "A chaptera-day Through January" is the slogan. Let us be reminded of this simple and united program of devotional reading.

On Sunday evening, Rev. Bert Ede, the newly appointed pastor of Walled Lake will preach. The members of his parish are much pleased with the beginning of his work. He is a young minister recently coming from the Theological school. The congregation is especially invited to hear him. M Marie Walling and Arthur Applin have colaborated in writing the words and music of a very heautiful gospel song entitled "No Other Name." By special request, they will sing it again on Sunday morning.

Doctor Leeson, the pastor, preaches Sunday morning on the subject: "The Work of Our Hands."

Beauties of Gibralter Gibralter is considered by a traveling correspondent to be one of the most beautiful and picturesque landing ports in the world. Rio, New York, and Sydney, he writes, are all in and lovely pinces, but they are all outshone by Gibralter. As one steams up

Good Manners

I take it that the essence of good manners is the rift of putting people at their ease, not the chosen few people whom one likes, but all people. Yes, ease is the word that described by the case with a fact the control of the contro

Talk This Over
It Dinner Tonight

ERE'S a fact to ponder! Although about 9,000,000 persons joined Christmas Savings be last year, this membership represented less none-third of the families in this country.

Think how much better it would be if every family took the wise precaution of providing for Christmas spending by joining a Christmas Club and saving, little by little, the needed sum.

If your family was not represented in Christmas Club membership this year, why not propose it at the dinner table tonight?

It requires only trifling self-denial to put away a small weekly sum and the results at the end of the year are so gratifying.
