Sunday School opened at 10:30 with Mr. Tooley of Redford acting as superintendent. This is the first we have had the school before the service. It worked out very satisfactory. Mr. Tooley had with him primary division Supt. Mrs. Freda Schifke, also of Redford. These officers are giving us their help in our reorganizing.

Those who attended the Father and Son banquet Friday evening, were pleased to vote it the most successful held. It being our fourth affair. Seldom is a small community able to secure such distinguished speakers as graced this banquet. The Rev. Brown George Gullen, Rev. Dr. Morton Pearson and last but by no means least our own George Gullen, Jr. With Assistant Prosecutor Chas. Wilson of Pontiac acting as toastmaster, community singing under the leadership of Mr. Eaton, songs by the B. B. Bawlers, and A. Owen, added much to the entertainment. The decorations in red and white carried out the Valentine spirit. Large bouquets of roses were given as prizes. Mr. Martin, the oldest member, Earl Gullen having three sons, Chas. Wilson, the youngest father and little Master Bert, the youngest son, were the prize winners.

A number of West Point Park boys plan to join the Farmington group in organizing a Boy Scout camp. Curtis Hall of Farmington High School, will be scoutmaster. They will assemble at the Methodist Church, Boys 12 years of age to 18 will be eligible.

Neighbors surprised R. W. Whipple one evening last week spending a very pleasant time with music and cards. At midnight, lunch was served and a birthday cake with the required 32 candles lighted was handed Mr. Whipple.

WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPION IN WRESTLING MATCH AT DETROIT FEB. 24th

World's Welterweight Champion Jack Reynolds will defend his wrestling crown in Detroit, Monday, February 24 at Danesland, Detroit, with Cyclone Mackey, the St. Joseph, Mo. flash as his challenger.

Matchmaker Adam Weismuller of the Detroit Wrestling Club has closed for the bout and fans are going to see spectacular hot fire between a clever, smooth-working champion and a good knowledge of the game's many holds.

Mackey won the right to meet Reynolds by defeating John Felix last at Amaranth and the Florida fans are sure he will give the champion a real battle with a good chance that will usurp the crown Jack has held for over six years.

The semi-final brings into action Jimmy Logas of Chicago Railroad Route of El Paso, Tex. Logas is the matman who gained distinction by being the first man to pin Michigan Middleweight Champion Ben Stefanski's shoulders to the mat in two years. Railroad Route is making the first appearance here and is a real wrestler of the Cowboy Chick type. They are light heavies.

Other bouts on the card are Ray Coanier, Lancaster, Pa., and Pete Demetoff, Hazel Park vs. Art Perkins, Detroit.

Real Wedded Bliss

Even Stjernberg, who has a wife in Chicago married another at Rockford, Ill., and lived happily until wife No. 2 learned about wife No. 1. Then she had him arrested and jailed on a bigamy charge. Stjernberg phoned his first wife, who volunteered to come to his aid immediately and help raise the bond to release him. His second wife, on learning how his first wife was about it, also went out to help raise bond money.

Banish That Troublemaker The Wasteful Furnace Coil

Six-thirty in the morning—below zero outside—nearly freezing in the house—furnace fire out—the furnace coil is leaking. Then the trouble, the expense, the discomfort, and the actual danger to health while the coil is replaced and the fire rekindled. Or in the spring, summer or fall—little or no furnace fire—lukewarm or cold water. And all year—that annoying hammering in the pipes.

You can banish this troublemaker—the furnace coil; install a Special Heater and enjoy a continuous supply of piping hot water—and at low cost. It's "Built Like a Thermos Bottle." It's something entirely new, burns a minimum of gas.
