EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Wilson Announces Call for Extra Ses-

"I shall call congress together in extraordinary session not later than April 15. I shall do this not only because I think that the pledges of the party ought to be redeemed as promptly as possible but also I know it to be in the interest of business that all uncertainty as to what the particular items of tariff revision are to be should be removed as soon as possible.—WOODROW WILSON." President-elect Wilson took the first important step towards carrying out his pledges to the people, when he amounced he would call an extra session of congress not later than April 15, instead of waiting six months for the regular session.

15, instead of waiting six months for the regular session.

The president-elect gave out his statement before embarking on his vocation for two reasons. First, as declared in his statement, he desired to remove any uncertainty that might be injurious to the business interests of the country. The second reason was purely selfash, he remarked. He wants to spend his vacation in quiet and peace. He realized, he said, that unliess the question was settled at this time, he would be beselfed continually for a definite statement on the subject.

Simultaneously with the issuance of his statement the preadent-elect gave permission to say he is to spend his vacation in Bermuda. He sailed on
